

Older Peoples Conference Event 2012

It is time once again for this popular and successful biannual conference event which is open to all Bracknell Forest residents who are over 50. This sixth 'Voice of Experience' event is being held on Friday 30 March 2012 at Easthampstead Baptist Church, South Hill Road, Bracknell, RG12 7NS.

This event - 'Opportunities in Later Life' is being financed by Adult Social Care at Bracknell Forest Council but is very much a partnership event with the conference being organised by representatives from the Council, and the voluntary and community sector.

Further details will follow in the New Year however please note this date in your diaries now!
